JUBILEE SPORTING EVENTS

Sproat, of the Barracks, was winner in this event, with Cockett next. Spencer made a good showing, but could not touch the winner.

Record—Sproat, first, 33.3; Cockett, second, 31.1.
3. 90-yards dash. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 20.
This was a pretty race from the start. The winners were all good men, and very close finish between the first four or five was the result. Moore, of the Barracks, was just a wee bit too speedy, and passed the tape just about a nose ahead of Thrum. Had the race been for 10 yards more, it is believed the latter would have come in winner.

Time—Moore, first, 11 1-2 seconds; Thrum, second, 12 1-2 seconds.
4. 120 yards wheelbarrow race. First prize, $10; second, $5.
This race was the fun-making event of the day. The contestants were blindfolded and then sent on their way rejoicing, with heads high up in the air and hands grasping desperately the handles of the wheelbarrow. Naturally, the impulse was to go around in a circle, and finding fences rather stubborn obstacles, many of the contestants came to a halt in a rather undignified manner.

The race was run in two heats for a money prize. Hao, who came out third in the first heat, was awarded first place in the race, because the other men, who came out in the lead, went to the finish on too straight a line, thus indicating to the judges that there were holes in their handkerchiefs.

Winners—Hao, first; Pakke, second.
5. Running high jump. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 7.

This was a spirited contest between Sproat, Spencer and Coleman, the others not being in the same class. Sproat proved the best jumper.

Height—Sproat, first, 5 feet, 5 1-2 inches; Coleman was a close second.

6. Half-mile run. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 22.
A very few of those who had entered took part in this race. Walcott was the favorite.

Time—Walcott, first, 2:23 1-2; Kiwa, second. Time very poor. Walcott could have made better time, but had the thing all his own way.

7. 120-yards hurdle. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 19.
The contestants became pretty widely spread out at about the fourth hurdle. Kau took the lead and kept it to the last hurdle, when he struck the cross bar and fell. Hapai was close, and the little run to the finish gave him the race. Beckley made a spirited start at the finish, but was unable to do anything.

Time—Hapai, first, 22 1-2 seconds; Kau, second.

8. Three-legged race. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 19.
Thrum and Willis took the lead from the start and finished first, with En Chang and Cummings close seconds.

Time—Thrum and Willis, first, 13 1-2 seconds; En Chang and Cummings, second.

9. 100-yards dash (under 16). First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 24.
Kama won first place in this race, with King second.

10. Novelty race (one-mile bicycle, one-mile run, one-mile walk). First prize, $20; second, $10.
Undoubtedly this was the race of the day that created most interest. Out of the 12 entries only Walcott, Sylvester and Clarke contested.

Ride a mile—Sylvester started out ahead, and soon out a great distance between himself and his opponents, coming in about an eighth of a mile ahead of Clarke, the next man. Walcott was far behind, and on coming to the three-quarters, jumped off his wheel and pushed it along.

Time—Sylvester, first, 2:47 1-2; Clarke, second.

Walk a mile—Having gotten rid of his wheel, Sylvester started on the walk. Clarke following him quite a while afterwards. Walcott was not far to the rear. Sylvester kept his lead and finished first.

Time—Sylvester, first, 10:20; Clarke and Walcott crossed the tape about together.

Run a mile—Sylvester took a piece of a lemon from a friend and started on the run. His opponents could not catch him with the big lead he had, and Sylvester came in ahead.

Time—Sylvester, first, 5:50; Walcott, second.

Time of entire race—Sylvester, winner, 15:11 1-2, this being counted as a fine record.

11. Ring-throwing contest. First prize, medal; second, medal. There were 20 entries, and each man had two chances, or a total of 40 rings apiece.

Winners—A. Howe, with 18 out of 20 rings, first; Louis Reynolds, with 14 out of 20 rings, second.

12. Pole vault. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 4—Coleman, Tracy, Spencer and Willis—all good vaulters.

Spencer made a good showing, but was soon out of the contest, leaving Coleman and Willis alone in the field. Up to 3 feet 6 inches it was hard to tell which would win. Willis began to weaken at this point and was unable, after three trials, to make 3 feet 6 1-2 inches, which his opponent had just made.

Height—Coleman, first, 9 feet, 6 1-2 inches; Willis, second.

13. Running broad jump. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 8.

Winners—Sproat, first, 19 feet, 8 1-2 inches; Coleman, second.

14. 220-yards dash. First prize, gold watch and chain. Number of entries, 24.
In this race, Moore came out ahead, with Thrum a very close second.

Time—Moore, first, 24 1-2 seconds; Thrum, second.

15. Consolation race (quarter-mile). First prize, medal; won by B. F. Beardmore.

16. Quarter-mile run. First prize, medal; second, medal. Number of entries, 17.
Won by En Chang.

17. Sack race. First prize, $10; second, $5. Number of entries, 33.
Won by Cummings.

At the end of the races, the prizes were distributed to the winners by Mrs. T. R. Walker, from the Jockey Club stand. Three cheers were given for the Queen and three for everybody else.

Sports Committee—Thomas Wright, Harrison, G. S. Harris, Jr., and B. F. Beardmore.

The other officers have already been named in a previous issue of the Advertiser.

THE GRAND BALL.

The grand ball in celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, Tuesday night, was an event that will long be remembered by all those who were present at Independence Park pavilion. On this occasion, it is estimated that there were at least 600 people in the hall. When all were standing, just before the grand march, the hall was simply crowded.

When the dancing began, a great many people took to the chairs, and thus left a little more room.

The hall was handsomely decorated with flags, pennants and greens of various kinds.

On the wall at the Waikiki end was a design in red electric lights—a crown with V. R. beneath and 1897 and 1901 on either side. As will be seen later, this came into very good use later.

In between the pillars surrounding the hall were flags of various nations, while the pillars themselves were wrapped with greens. A palm-leaf here and another there served to very good purpose. Running across on the rafters were decorations similar to those already described.

At the Ewa end of the hall was a long elevated box, from which to view the dancing Her British Majesty's Commissioner Hayes and others of the prominent guests of the evening occupied this place. A prominent feature of the decorations of the box were pictures of Queen Victoria at various ages.

From 7:45 until 8:45 the band, stationed in front of the hall, furnished music. It was replaced later by the Quintette Club, which took its stand on the makai side of the hall and placed music for the dance.

During the reception hour all the regular lights went out, but fortunately the design on the Waikiki hall remained lighted. A man was sent for, and it was not until the first lancers were nearly completed that the lights again put in an appearance.

The dancing continued until the wee sma' hours, every one enjoying it to the hilt with the feeling of having had a most enjoyable evening.

To attempt to name the people present would be folly. In addition to Commissioner Hayes, there were present Minister and Mrs. Cooper, Attorney General Smith, Captain Kurooka and officers of the Naniwa, officers of the Philadelphia and Marion.

It was noticed by not a few present that the Japanese flag was not among the decorations. This was spoken of by some of the Japanese.

Following are the committees, whose members had charge of the successful event:

A Challenge.
The following article appeared in an afternoon paper of June 22d:

"Magnet, belonging to the Halstead Brothers, and the favorite running horse in the Rosita Challenge Cup, made the mile dash in 1:43 3/4 out at Kapiolani Park yesterday. There were several watches held on her and a good number of townspeople saw the race.

"This is four seconds better time than that of Sympathetic's Last, who won the purse on June 12. It is known that Magnet was doped by an outsider. Magnet will probably be rattled off."

Since the Kamehameha Day races quite a good deal of talk of now if Magnet had not been "dosed" that horse would have won. To put a stop to this talk, Gus Schuman issues the following challenge:

"I hereby offer to run my horse 'Sympathetic's Last' against the mare 'Magnet' one mile dash, for a purse of five hundred ($500) to one thousand (1,000) dollars."

Read what Ayer's Sarsaparilla did for the Rev. Z. P. Wilds, a well-known city missionary in New York and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds:

"I was for many years a sufferer from boils and other eruptions of a like nature, caused by the impoverished state of my blood. My appetite was poor and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by observation of the good it had done to others, I began taking it. My
